

CONTENTS

	Page
I. RESPONSIBILITIES DELEGATED TO EXTENSION WORKERS INCLUDED IN REPORT	1-23
A. Assigned Administrative Responsibilities and Programs During Year, in Getting Increased Financial Support from Counties for Maintenance and Increased Staff.	1-8
1. Getting Increased Financial Support from Counties for:
a. New Personnel
b. Salary Adjustments
c. Housing, Equipment and Supplies
2. Improving Working Conditions of County Staff
a. Office Equipment
b. Clerical Help
c. Increase in Salaries
d. Retirement
e. Hospitalization and Surgical Insurance
f. Life Insurance
g. Leave
B. Supervisory Responsibilities and How Supervisory Groups Operate as a Unit or Team and With Colleagues Who Supervise in Other Lines of Work	9-18
1. Headquarters Situation
2. Maintain Joint Responsibility for:
a. Budget Planning
b. Contact with Officials and Other Key People in Counties
c. Program Planning, Directing and Evaluating
d. Selecting and Supervising Personnel
e. Planning State and District Programs
f. Promoting Cooperative Relationships Between County and Home Demonstration Agents
g. Holding Joint Conferences With County Personnel
h. Sending Joint Letters to County Personnel
i. Promoting 4-H and YMW Programs
j. Promoting Adult Leader Programs for 4-H Club
3. Cooperative Relationships
C. Other Responsibilities, such as Special Assignments in Cooperation with Local, State and Federal Agencies, Groups, and Organizations.	19-23
1. The Home Demonstration Reading Program
2. Rural Recreation
3. Farm and Home Week
4. Fairs
5. The Challenge
6. U. S. Savings Bonds Program
7. Class for Home Economics Students in Home Demonstration Organization

CONTENTS (continued)

Page

8. State Adult Educational Meeting
9. World Affairs
10. National Citizenship Conference
11. Special Committees
II. OBJECTIVES, METHODS, AND RESULTS RELATED TO:	24-54
AA. Personnel	24-31
1. Selection and Employment of County Extension Agents
2. Induction Training and Apprenticeship of New Agents
3. Professional Improvement
4. County Staff Relationships
5. Efficient and Effective Use of Time Out of County
6. Number positions vacant in counties that have made appropriations for home demonstration work
B. Program Development	32-42
1. Obtaining and Analyzing Local Data
2. Setting Objectives
3. Part Played by Committeemen, Local Leaders, Club Members and Other People in Determining County Extension Program
4. Role of Specialists, County Extension Workers, State Supervisors and State Extension Leaders, in Planning County Extension Program
5. Integration of Agricultural, Home Demonstration, Young Adult, and 4-H Club Work into One Extension Program
6. Development of Suburban and Urban Extension Work
C. Assistance Supervisors Give Agents in Carrying Out Extension Program	43-51
1. In Choice and Use of Methods
2. In Selection, Training and Use of Local Leaders
3. Coordinating and Integrating the Work of Specialists and Supervisors
4. Suburban and Urban Extension Work
5. Methods of Evaluating and Checking Results
D. Public Relations	51-53
E. Participation of Supervisors in State and District Activities	53-54
III. BRIEF EVALUATION OF SUPERVISORY ACCOMPLISHMENTS	55-61
A. Progress	55-56
B. Cooperation with Other Agencies	56-59
C. Farm and Home Development	59-60
D. Program Projection	60-61
E. Rural Development	61

CONTENTS (continued)

	Page
IV. OUTLOOK--MAJOR CHANGES OR ADJUSTMENTS THAT ARE DESIRABLE FOR NEXT YEAR BASED ON THIS YEAR'S EXPERIENCE	62-65
V. SPECIAL	66-74
A. How Supervisors' Work During 1956 Contributed to Farm Unit Approach, Marketing and Public Affairs	66-68
1. Farm Unit Approach
2. Marketing
3. Public Affairs
B. Case History of Program Projection in North Carolina Agricultural Extension Service	69-74
1. Preceding Home Demonstration Program Planning in North Carolina
2. Program Projection in North Carolina in 1956	