

YMW PROGRAM FOR 1965

A planning conference was held in the spring of 1965 for the purpose of making plans for the year and specifically for making plans for the annual YMW Conference which was held at the Betsy-Jeff Penn 4-H Center in Reidsville on the week-end of July 30 - August 1.

The annual conference featured lessons by a representative of the Duke Power Company on the use of small appliances in the home and small appliances in the shop. Dr. Duane Neuman, Economist for the Agricultural Extension Service, presented a program on Investments. Preston Cornelius, an IFYE to Kenya during the summer of 1964, presented a talk on Kenya and Its People. Miss Fran Jordan, Extension Family Relations Specialist, presented a program on How Do You Fit Your Community.

The annual conference was attended by a group of young adults which varied in number from 35 to 50. The recreational features of the program provided for a cookout, folk games and a tour.
