

4-H CHURCH SUNDAY

The 4-H Church Sunday material was prepared under the leadership of Fred H. Wagoner of the State 4-H Staff. The Rev. Ector Hamrick, Pastor-Director, Baptist Center, Alexandria, Virginia wrote the worship service. Ector is a former outstanding North Carolina 4-H Club member from Cleveland County.

Reports received from 68 counties indicate the following participation in 4-H Church Sunday this year: 701 different churches in these counties participated; 667 programs were given by 4-H members; 11,902 club members attended the services; 7,179 club members participated in the services; 52,811 people attended the services; 42 community vesper programs were held; 6 county-wide vesper programs were held; 26 county-wide Church Sunday programs were held; 84 radio programs regarding 4-H Church Sunday were presented; 115 Church related 4-H community service projects were conducted; 118 news articles were written; and 1,592 adult leaders assisted with the programs.