

It's the Spirit that Counts

RURAL CHURCH MUSIC SCHOOL
Training School Auditorium
East Carolina College
Greenville, N. C.

Mrs. J. Paul Davenport, Chairman Music Committee of the North Carolina Federation of Home Demonstration Clubs.

MORNING SESSION - 10:30

Group Singing. Leader, Dr. Kenneth Cuthbert, Head of Music Department, East Carolina College

Talk It's The Spirit That Counts - (Church music is an essential part of the service. It is a part of the contribution that members should make to the church. As in all giving,
"It's the Spirit that Counts").

Talk The Choir in the Church Service
Dr. Herhon T. Dilday, Pastor
Ebenezer Baptist Church, South Mills

Demonstration The Spirit May Bring About Good Singing
Anthems from your Hymn Book
Mr. Dan Vornholt

Discussion Mrs. J. Paul Davenport

Lunch - 12:30

AFTERNOON SESSION - 1:30

- Demonstration Singing with Piano Accompaniment
The Order of Worship and Congregational Singing
Sources of Easy Piano and Anthem
Material
Mrs. Paul A. Toll, at the piano
- Demonstration Hymn Playing and Hymn Offertories
Accompanying
Sources of Organ Voluntaries
Mr. George Perry, at the organ
- Demonstration Conducting Technics - Dr. Cuthbert
- Discussion Mrs. Davenport
- Special Music Pitt County Choral Group
- Group Singing Leader, Dr. Cuthbert

* * * * *

Concert - 8:00 P. M.

The Messiah, by Handell
Austin Auditorium
Presented by East Carolina College
Chorus

(Leadership for the Rural Church Music School has been arranged through the courtesy of East Carolina College Music Faculty).